

VIRTLX™

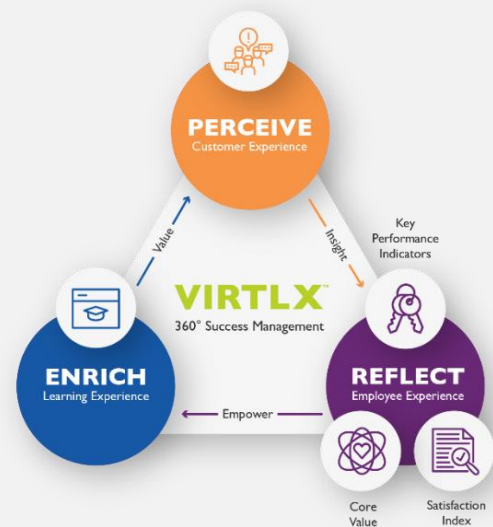

VirtlX is changing surveys and training in your workforce with an easy to use SaaS platform enabling companies to:

- Create, manage and analyse surveys for employees and customers.
- Create, manage and analyse training programs for employees specific to your company's products and services.

Traditional HR platforms address tasks such as employee leave and payroll, human capital management, workforce management, resource planning, etc.

VirtlX fills the gaps that traditional HR systems do not offer:

- Free up hours, days or even weeks of your time by ditching spreadsheets and other documents
- Gain unique insights into employee-engagement, -satisfaction and -wellbeing with Pulse, 360° & Peer Reviews within a day
- Almost instantaneous employee appraisals
- Company-wide sentiment at the click of a button
- Bespoke, self-authored employee training material and testing
- Customer sentiment analysis on service and products
